Carole Klingler, Queen

Homecoming Attractions:

Homecoming, we have it every year, and every year it seems to get better — even if it does rain!!

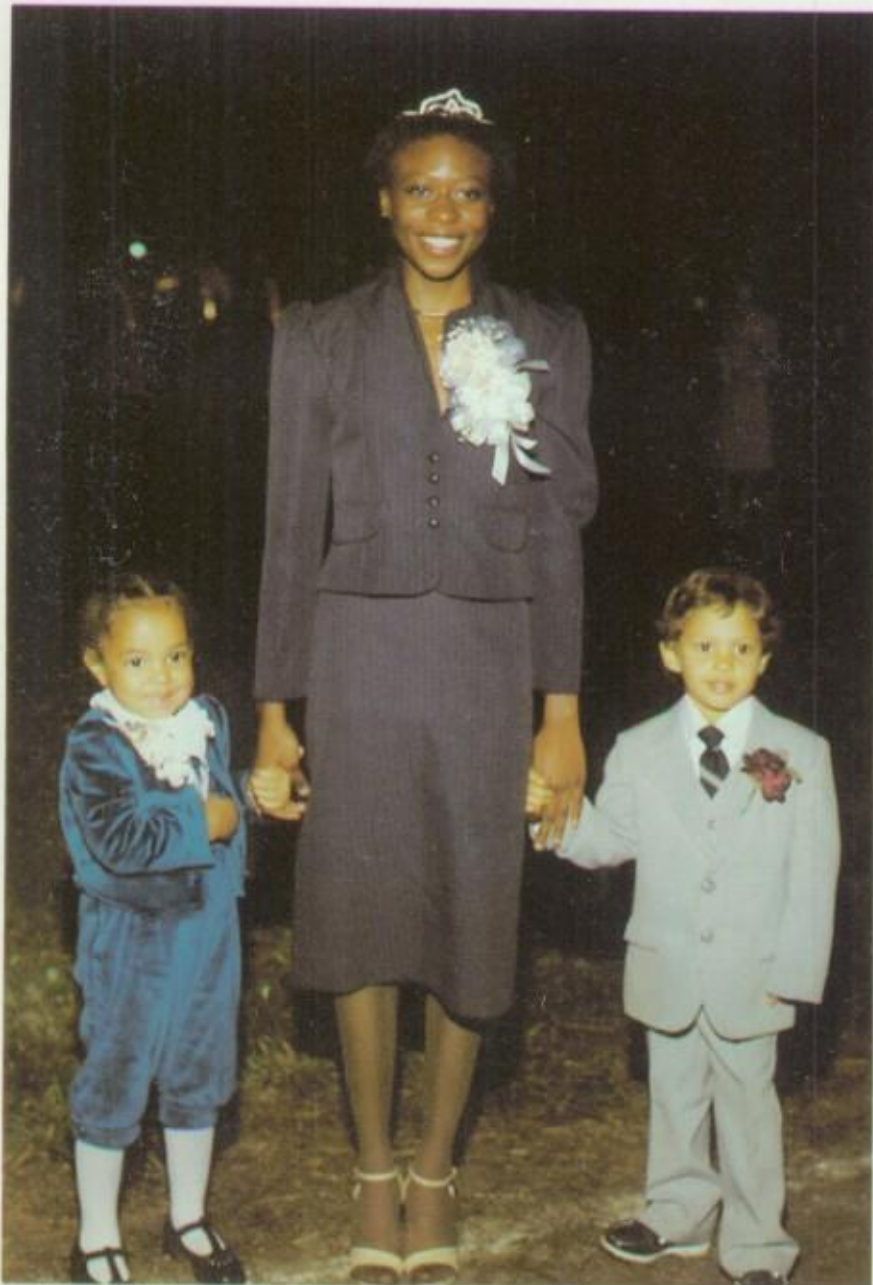

We rush around trying to get just the right thing to wear for that special day, while all week long we dressed in sweatsuits, like members of the opposite sex, and like punkers and nerds. The traditional red and blue day ended the week. At the pep rally, it was announced that the Junior Class won for best hall decorations. o

Friday night's game and the crowning of the queen along with Saturday night's dance and crowning of the king ended the week of enthusiasm, excitement, and enchantment.

Homecoming Dance 1983

Is this one of those squirting flowers?

I think it's getting past my bedtime!!

Would you quit looking at him and look at me!!!

So, Jeff, you like my fingernail polish?!

Aahh, come on Todd.

Just push and aim?

I told you that you shouldn't eat lemons!

The 1984 ZIDAC staff, which seems to be "Putting on the Ritz", is acknowledging all students of CHS as extraordinary, superb, superior, first-rate, and first-class. In other words all the students have "a touch of Class," and this is the central idea we have tried to establish in this yearbook. We hope you have enjoyed recalling all these special memories.

A special thanks goes to Paula for the extra work in advertising and typing, and to Bret for his artistic contributions.

Cardinal Crest Staff

Kneeling: Sonya Merryman, Dannell Paolucci (Editor), Bobbi Keyser, Lesley Applegarth, Becky Smith, Janeen Tanner. Standing: Tracie Kiggins, Carole Klingler, Kelli Jo Price, Michelle O'Bradovich, Scott Barnhart, Paul Giffen, Teri Dickerson.

The Cardinal Crest Staff works all year during lunch or any other extra "free" time to work on the school's newspaper. A special thanks goes to Mrs. Minor who also gives her "free" time to advise the newspaper staff.

Annie writes of her challenge of opening the world for Helen.

Above: "Water" gives new life to Helen.

The Miracle Worker is a story about Helen Keller, her family, and her teacher, Annie Sullivan. Helen was born a normal baby, but at six months a high fever leaves her deaf and mute. During the next five and a half months her family becomes unable to control her. Through strong determination, Annie, once blind herself, tames the wild little animal that once was.

Dannell Paolucci

This was an extra special year for the Seniors, as this was the first time the band has ever won a Grand Champion rating! The Seniors received a special award on parents' night in recognition of their musical achievements.

Billy Abel

Beth Dewalt

Lisa Hamric

Senior Band Members

Michelle O'Bradovich

Harold Dunlap

Aaron Hoobler

At Rio Grand College where the band attended camp, August 7-12, a few seniors were honored and they received the following awards:

Amy Erdos — Camper of the week

Lorna Grim and Bobbie Lee Keyser — Outstanding Music Campers Award

A 1st place rating was given in the squad competition and their talent skit received a superior rating also.

Carol Klingler

Cherry Wheeler

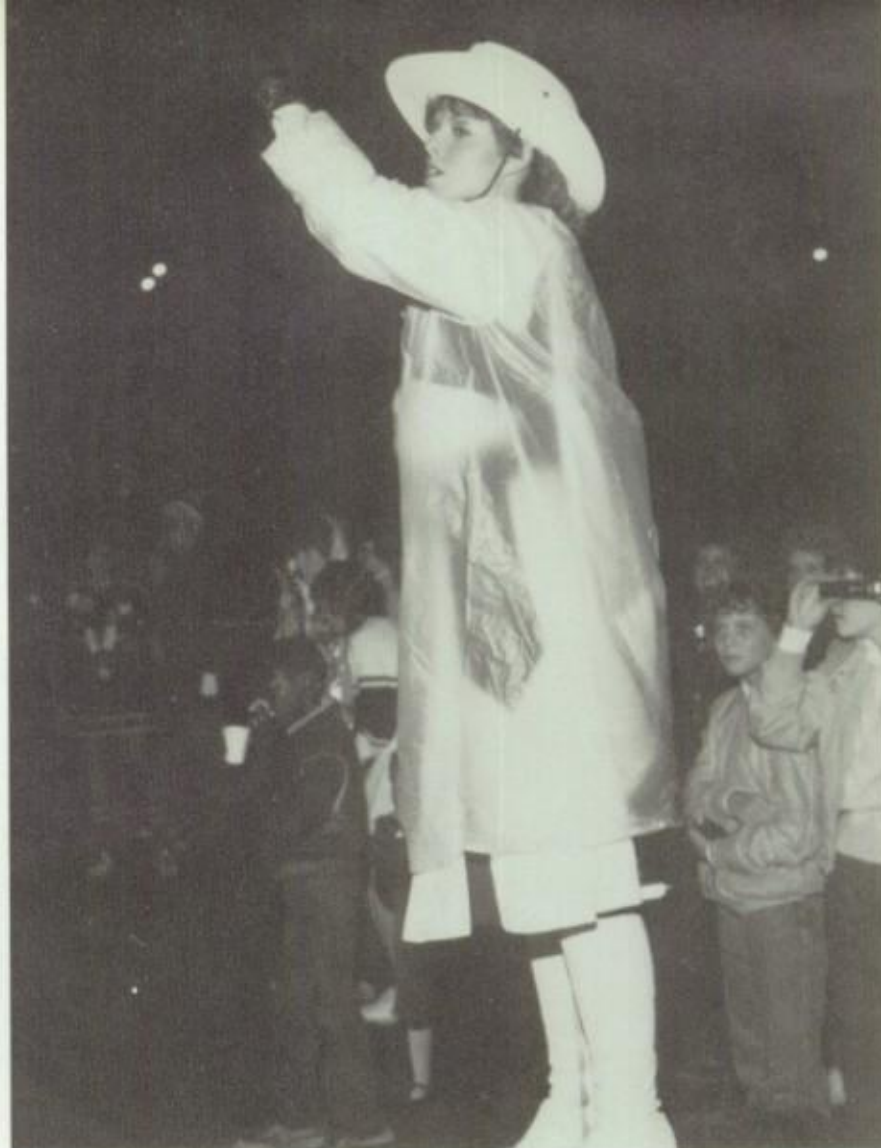

Marsha Hawthorne

Conquering All With Style

The CHS Marching Band had yet another brilliant year! They started off their winning season with a first place at Newcomerstown. Next, they received a 2nd place at St. Clairsville, but this didn't dampen their cardinal spirits. They went to Wintersville where they received a 1st place, and River, where they earned Grand Champion, and ended the season by attaining their ultimate goal of a Superior at State!

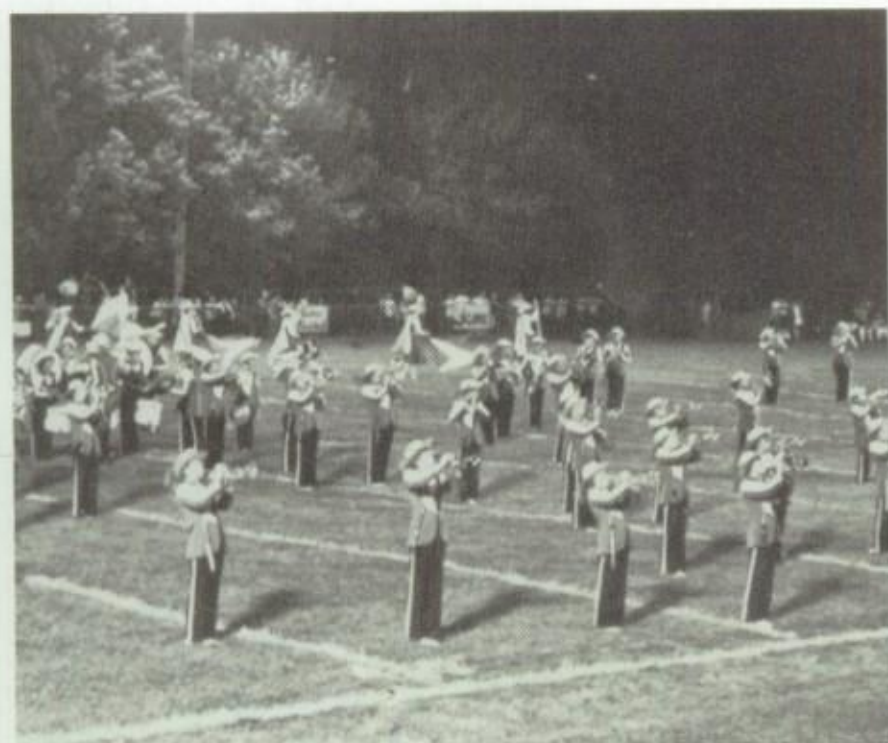

Congrats! to this sensational group!

Field Commander: Janice Bizic

And the band goes marching on . . .

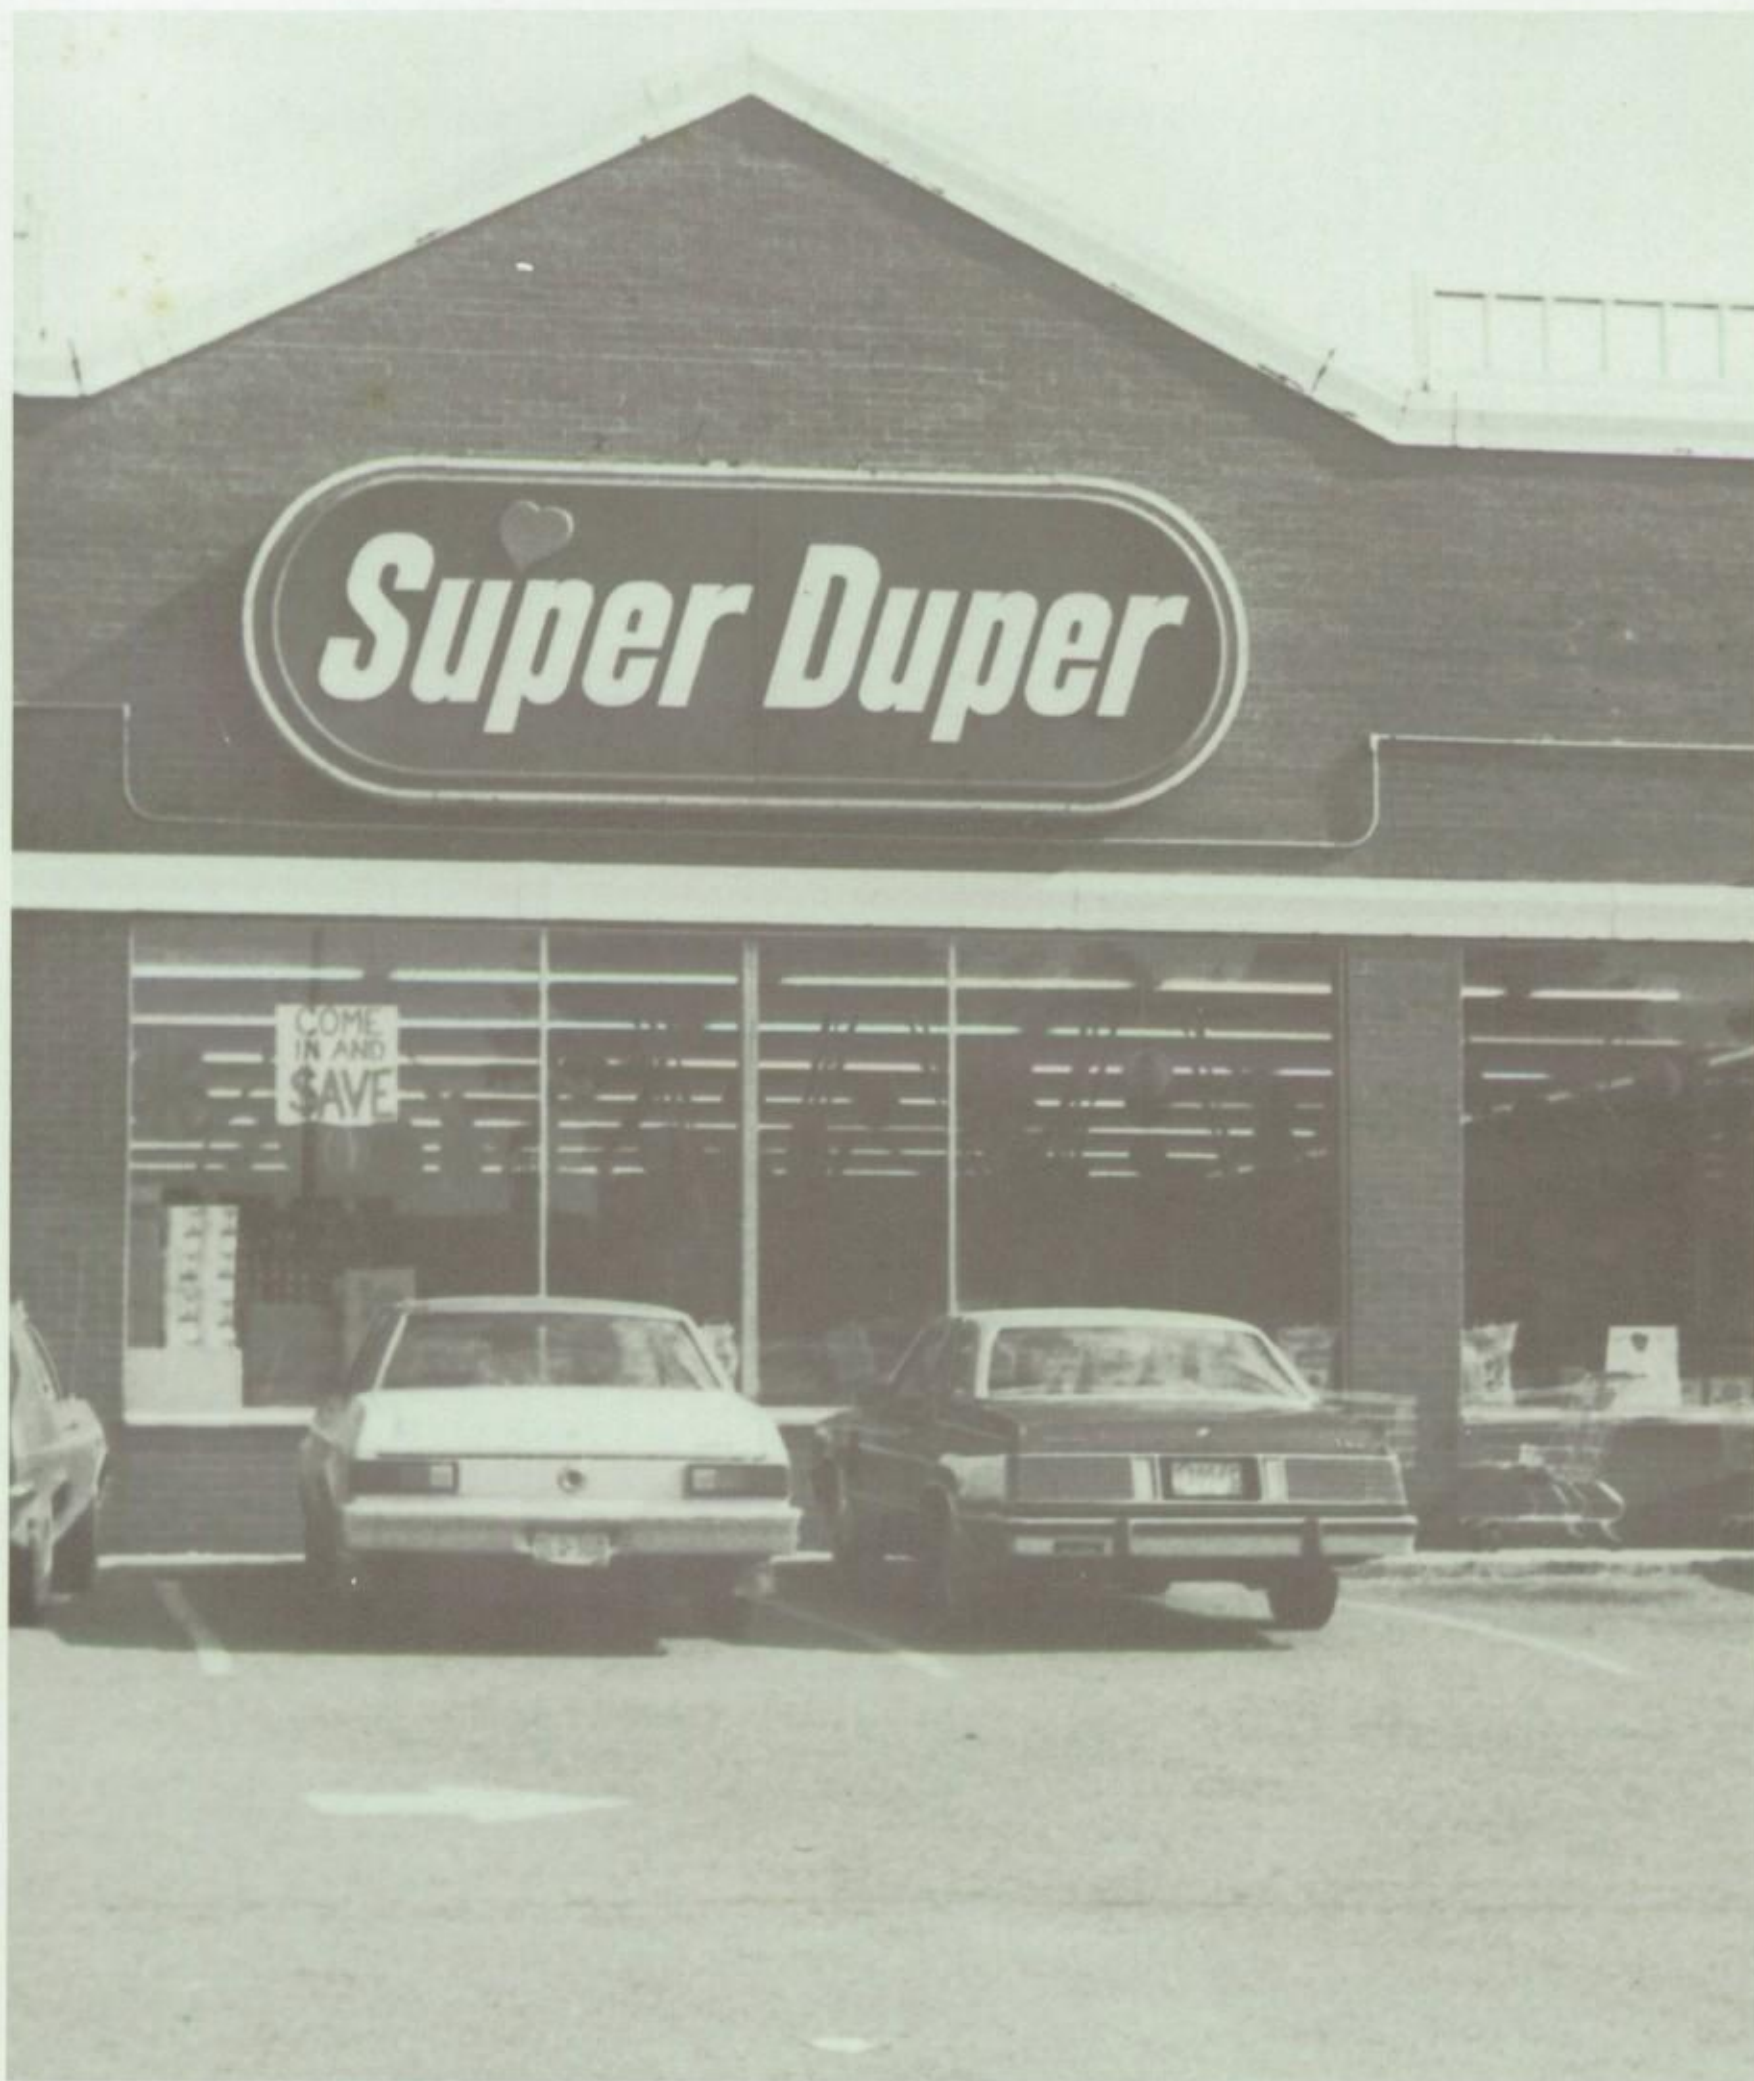

Looking their sharpest!

Mr. Shade: The man behind it all.
